The Curtis/s Family Society - Paper Clips

These paper clips have been compiled from a number of sources. Some paper clips have been sent to me from local newspapers, or from various individuals. Most have been collected in electronic form from newspapers or other sites on the Internet. Individuals who submitted paper clips have been acknowledged at the end of the submitted paper clip.

The full paper clip may be seen on the page indicated in the index after each name.

Most paper clips are obituaries, but a few are newspaper clippings about other events in the lives of a Curtis/s relative. Where possible, parents and spouses have been underlined.

Arthur E. Hutchinson, Genealogist, Vice-President, and database Archivist for the Curtis/s Family Society has reviewed all of the paper clips. He has been able to identify the families and genealogical line of many of the persons in the paper clips. All of his comments are included in red at the end of each paperclip. The family lineages of those paperclips without Arthur Hutchinson's comments in red cannot be identified at this time.

Hopefully, users of these paperclips will find members of their families in this collection.

We hope that if anyone has any additional information about any of the paper clips listed, please forward that information to the compiler below to be included in future editions of these paper clips, and to be forwarded to the Curtis/s Family Society.

This collection of The Curtis/s Family Society – Paper Clips for 2006 belongs to the Curtis/s Family Society and to the compiler. Any reproduction, or any other use, of any of the contents of The Curtis/s Family Society – Paper Clips for 2006 is encouraged, and must include a reference to The Curtis/s Family Society – Paper Clips for 2006 and to The Curtis/s Family Society.

Curtis, Barbara Lee - (Morning Sentinel) (11/3/06)

FAIRFIELD -- Barbara Lee Curtis lost her very courageous battle with breast cancer Sunday, Nov. 1, 2006. Barbara was the daughter of Leeman and Ethel (Edwards) Curtis. She was born in Bridgeport, Conn., on March 13, 1947. She grew up in Stratford, Conn., and graduated from Stratford High School in 1965 and Sacred Heart University in 1970 with a bachelor's degree in English. From 1970 to 1979 she worked for Travelers Insurance Co. In 1979 she relocated to New Hampshire to work for Merchants Mutual Insurance Co., until 1992 when she decided to move to Maine. She was looking for a job outside the business world, so she took a job as a nanny since she loved children so much and was like a second mom to her nine nieces and nephews. On Jan. 4, 1992, she began taking care of Abby, Emily and Matthew Dustin and loved them like they were her own children and always kept in touch. On Aug. 17, 1999, she started work for a new family taking care of Anthony and two years later his sister Julia. She bonded with them and loved them so very much. They called her Wo Wo, which she loved and thought was so special. Three weeks after her mastectomy she was back helping take care of them with the help of Tara. Barb was a very special person and one of a kind who would help anyone who needed it. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. She was predeceased by her parents; brother-in-law Mark Bernstein; uncle Bill Curtis; and cousin Billy Curtis. She is survived by her three sisters, Janet Bernstein, Marilyn Donofrio and husband, Rich, of Stratford, Conn., and Sue Duprey and husband, Roger, of Fairfield, who she lived with and took care of her. Her nieces and nephews, whom she loved dearly and was always a big part of their lives growing up, are Brian and Jeff Duprey, Brenda Lee, Sandy and Lisa Bernstein, Jennifer Doucette, Scott and Billy Bradley, Russell Neely; cousins Don Curtis from Boise, Idaho, and Bill Edwards from San Diego; along with several great-nieces and nephews. A special thank you to Michelle from Hospice for being so caring and helpful and to Dr. Ann Traynor and Dr. Andrew Hertler. Thank you to Dora Mills and Michael and Michela Fiori for treating Barb like part of your family, loving her and all you have done for her. To Paul, Abby, Emily and Matt Dustin for loving Barb and spending time with her, and her very special friend, Susan Phillips and her family, she enjoyed being with all of you very much. Thank you to Tara, Missy and Donna for being there and helping her care for Anthony and Julia. A very special thank you to my husband, Roger, and daughter, Brenda, for all the help in taking care of Barb. I love you. Barb, Sue. A Mass in her honor will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 4, at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Wilton. Because of Barb's love of children, in lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her memory to the Make a Wish Foundation of Maine, 87 Elm St., Suite 203, Camden, ME 04843, to help make a terminal child's dream come true.

Curtis, Bernard W. Jr. - (Post-Star) (8/22/06)

FORT EDWARD * Bernard W. Curtis Jr. 77, of Queensbury, and a former resident of Fort Edward, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, Aug. 20, 2006, at Glens Falls Hospital. Born in Glens Falls on Sept. 1, 1928, he was the son of the late Bernard W. and Aletha (LaPoint) Curtis. Bernard was a graduate of Fort Edward High School, Class of 1947. He served in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War. On July 6, 1963, he married Mary H. Cicero Montello. Bernard was a communicant of St. Joseph Church, Fort Edward, a former member of the Knights of Columbus Fort Edward Council 336 and a former volunteer fireman for the John R. Durkee Hose Co. of Fort Edward. After many years of service, he retired from the General Electric in 1985. Bernard was a wonderful husband, father and a loving grandfather. Curtiss, Betsey C. Moraska (Burlington Free Press, Burlington, VT) (Sept. 23, 2006)

Charlotte, VT – Betsy C. Moraska passed away peacefully in her home surrounded by her family on Sept. 21, 2006. She was born Jan. 26, 1938 in Waterbury, Conn., the daughter of Roger and Josephine Curtiss. She graduated from Litchfield High School, Litchfield, Conn. and from the University of Connecticut in business administration. On Aug. 27, 1962 she married Albert F. Moraska. After graduation, they moved to Philadelphia, PA, where she worked as an executive secretary to the general manager of Hercules Cement Co., while supporting her husband in veterinary school. In 1969, they moved to Vermont where she worked at the Chittenden South Supervisory District. She then managed her husband's veterinary office and raised a family. In 1984 she graduated summa cum laude from Champlain College in accounting. She then worked in portfolio accounting at the University of Vermont, the Center for Rural Studies and Admissions. In 1991, she was nominated by her colleagues for Employee of the Year. In 2000, she left UVM to return to the family veterinary practice where she thoroughly enjoyed interacting with the farmers. She served on the board of directors and as treasurer for numerous committees and associations, including The Women of UVM, the Dollars and the Sense Investment Club. The Champlain Valley League of Women Voters, the Financial Affairs Committee at UVM, and the Caswell Credit Union where she was also chairwoman of the Caswell Credit Union Investment Committee. She was a Friends of Families volunteer and advocate for the elderly. Throughout her life, Betsy was very active and had many interests from antiques, reading, bird watching, animals, flower arranging and UVM hockey to attending lectures and plays. She enjoyed traveling and in recent years visited Costa Rica, Russia, Germany, Austria, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, and ventured on an African safari to Botswana and Zambia. On Aug. 27, Betsy and Al celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary in Colorado. She leaves her husband, Dr. Albert F. Moraska of Charlotte, her daughter Susan Moraska of Shelburne; her son Dr. Albert F. Moraska Jr. and Alison of Boulder Colo; and special little friends. She is survived by her parents, Roger and Josephine Curtiss, of Northfield, Conn., her sisters and their families, Alice and Joseph Magnarella of Prospect, Conn., and Marie and Juan Hernandez of Tampa, Fla; her brothers and their families, Roger Curtiss Jr. of Harwinton, Conn., Jerry and Nancy Curtiss, Northfield, Conn; and Roy and Carolyn Curtiss, Northfield Conn., and 17 nieces and nephews throughout the U.S. Burial will be in Northfield,

Curtis, Blyth Aimee (Curtis) Durand (Yakima Herald Republic) (Jan. 25, 2006)

Wenatchee – Blythe Aimee Durand was born Sept. 10, 1923 in Bovey, Minnesota to Frank and Myrtle Curtis. She passed quietly in her sleep Jan. 21, 2006. She was the 8th of 9 children. The family moved and settled in Sumner, WA. While in Smner, she meet and married Richard Durand, the father of their three sons. Living in various cities throughout Washington, Yakima was closest to her heart, where she chose to live the rest of her life. Blythe was a talented and gifted artist. She painted many beautiful pictures in oil and sketched postcards in ink. Later in life, she branched out and wrote and had published a novel, Civic Pride. Blythe and her youngest son, Laine, were very active in working for the rights of the handicapped. Her involvement in life went from the extreme of dealing with Governors of Washington State to her artistic side of painting the lettering on the side of an airplane owned by Evel Kneivel. She was always interested in her community. She lived being surrounded by her family, playing cards and spending time with her grandchildren. She always looked forward to the family reunions held down on her brother Cliff's property. Due to health reasons, Blythe spent the last few years of her life in East Wenatchee with family. Blythe was preceded in death by her parents, 4 brothers, 3 sisters, and her son Laine. She is survived by her sister Lola Sparkawk of Yakima, sons Nolie and his wife Mary of Junction City, OR., Duncan and his wife Carol of East Wenatchee, WA., and Laine's wife Gayle of Yakima, and numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren. Blythe will no longer miss the sunrise, or the moonlight softening the night of the beauty of the earth she loved to paint. She will no longer miss her sons or their families or that next generation of little ones that she always wanted to protect. Her friends and relatives, these, she will no longer miss. But this I can say, Blythe will be missed. (sent by Doyle R. Curtis, 537 Lillie Lane, Toppenish, WA 98948)

Curtis, Herman Lee - (The Republican) (1/15/06)

Herman Lee Curtis 1949 – 2006 SPRINGFIELD, MA - Herman Lee Curtis, 56, departed this life on Tuesday, January 10, 2006. Herman began his life on January 12, 1949, in Helena, Arkansas. Born to Willie and Fannie Mae (Dismuk) Curtis, Herman was the youngest of eight children. Residing in Kentucky and Ohio, his family eventually settled in Springfield. However, when Herman's family decided to relocate to California, perhaps it was divine intervention that caused Herman to remain in Springfield, where he was lovingly "adopted" by the Spinks family; and his enthusiasm for basketball blossomed. Herman enjoyed unprecedented success as a member of both the old Springfield Boys Club and the Commerce High School basketball teams comprised of fellow players: Jesse Spinks, Bob Mack, Ben Adams and Issac Aycox. The exposure from these "Cinderella Team" successes was a significant impetus for his attending the University of Massachusetts where his roommate was Julius Irving "Dr. J". Post college, Herman worked for Digital Equipment Corporation for over twenty years. Once Digital dissolved in 1992 Herman served the city he loved as the Director of Handicap Affairs for the Mayors office. In 1995 he was promoted to his current position of Compliance officer for the City of Springfield. Herman was a board member of several civic organizations, including: One Hundred Black Men of Springfield, The 5A Program; and, founding member of "Voices" and the Robert E. Jennings Over 40 Basketball League. He also served as Chair of the Massachusetts Service for Seniors/NCCBA Board. Herman leaves to cherish his memory: His loving wife, Cynthia Tucker Curtis; three children, Jerry Curtis Osborn, Anthony I. Wilson, and Chelsea V. Wilson all of Springfield. He also leaves his extended family: brother; Billy Davis (Eloise) of Los Angeles, CA; sisters-in-law; Johnnie Curtis of Oakland, CA, and Gina Tucker-Williams of Los Angeles, CA; cousins; Bernice Veasley, Clarence Thomas, and entire Thomas family, nieces; Margarite, Stephanie, Ashley, Laura, Tracie, Veronica, Keiyauna, Kendra, Kia, Tori, Alexa, Carla, Camille, Victoria, Courtney, Ckera, Myiana, Nina, Tanisha, Lisa, Pam & Carmen, and nephews; Solomon, Benson, Markus, Solomon L. and Gregory, God sisters Alma Louise Spinks of Lithonia, Georgia; Corrina Houston, CV Wright (Willie), Annie Wiseman (Thomas) and God brother Jesse Spinks (Delores) all of Springfield; brothers-in-law; Clarence B. Tucker (Gwendolyn), Ronald E. Tucker both of Detroit, MI, Donald T. Tucker (Belin) of Austin, TX and Ralph L. Tucker (Roslyn) of Jackson, MI, and Grandmom, Shirley Williams of Springfield and a host of relatives and friends. With him in heaven are Herman's parents; three sisters, Christine, Mary Magdalane, and Marie; and, two brothers Andre and Jerry. The funeral service will be held Tuesday at 12 p.m. at Alden Baptist Church, 649 State St., Spfld. followed by burial in Oak Grove Cemetery. A calling hour will precede the service from 11 a.m. - 12 p.m. at the church. Donations may be made to the Robert O. Jennings "Over 40 Basketball League" c/o Dunbar Community Center.

Curtis, J. Leslie - (NWclassifieds) (4/24/2006)

J. Leslie CURTIS, CPA Les Curtis, 64, passed away April 8, 2006. He was born in Niagara Falls, NY on 9/21/41. Co-founder of Curtis, Sallee & Company, Les enjoyed the challenges of tax accounting for over 37 years. He had tremendous patience with both associates and clients, and was an excellent mentor to many. Les was a gentle bear of a man with a bright mind and terrific sense of humor. He had a deep appreciation for muscle cars, golf, football, trivial pursuit and was a crossword puzzle addict. He will be deeply missed by his wife, Sue, daughter, Jennifer (Jeff) and stepson, John (Sue), friends, business associates and greyhound, Desi. Per his request, no funeral services will be held but a Celebration of his Life is planned for September. Les' family would like to thank the excellent staff at Evergreen Medical Center; the doctors, nurses and technicians who went above and beyond in their care for him. Your efforts are greatly appreciated. Thanks also to the people at Evergreen Hospice who made his last days peaceful and painfree. Most especially to our friends who rallied around us and made the whole journey much easier; there are no adequate words of thanks. We could not have done it without you. Remembrances may be made to Greyhound Pets, Inc., King County Humane Society or Pasado's Safe Haven. Barton Family Funeral Services have handled the arrangements.

Curtis, James Wallace, Reverend - (Grand Rapids Press) & (The Times) (9/7/2006)

CURTIS - On September 5, 2006, The Reverend James Wallace Curtis peacefully left this world and began a new journey. Born in St. Louis, MO, the youngest of five boys, he spent his summers in Pier Cove, MI. There he met his bride and lifelong companion of 63 years, Mary Ann (Johnson) Curtis. Before he was "Father Jim," he served in the submarines in World War II in the Pacific. After the war, he transferred to the Chaplains' Corps from which he retired as a Naval Commander. After a short stint in farming, "Father Jim" found his calling as an Episcopal priest, which he pursued for over 50 years. His tenure commenced in Saugatuck, then took him to Gary and Hobart, IN. After retirement he returned to MI and continued to serve where needed until his death. Also, during retirement he found the time, energy and commitment to become a Tri-athlete. Among others, he completed Ironman races in Hawaii and Japan. "Father Jim" is survived by his loving wife, Mary Ann and five children, James W. Curtis Jr. (Helen) of Indianapolis, IN, Betsy E. Anderson (Clyde) of Denver, CO, Helen I. Foster (Bob) of L'Anse, MI, Dottie Curtis of Pier Cove, MI, and Robert D. Curtis (Jamie) of Arlington, TX; 14 grandchildren and three great grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephews; extended family and many loving friends. Visitation will be at All Saints Church, Saugatuck, on Thursday, September 7 from 7 to 9 p.m. Funeral services are scheduled for Friday, September 8 at 1 p.m. at All Saints. All are welcome to celebrate the life and love of "Father Jim."

Stonewall: Joseph(1), William Crawford(2), William Samuel(3), Edward Glion(4), James Wallace(5). Joseph(1) is found with two conflicting birth dates and locations: (a) New Jersey 23 Feb 1784; or, (b) Bug Brook, England, circa 1795. Neither date/location statement provides a source so evaluation of the rival claims is not possible. [AEH Oct 2006]

Curtis, Lloyd Duane L. - (San Diego Union-Tribune) (11/18/06)

CURTIS, LLOYD DUANE L. Duane Curtis, 73, of Temecula loved to spend warm sunny days on the beach in Baja California with his dog Gigi. He died there on November 11th, a victim of an assault and robbery. Duane was born to Marian and Lloyd Curtis September 11, 1933 in Lansing, Michigan. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps during the Korean War. Duane later worked in the communications field as an engineer and project manager. This took him to many parts of the world, including Europe, Africa, Asia and the Middle East. He quickly became an accomplished world traveler, and he discovered more than a few spots of paradise in very remote locations. One of his favorite places was his beach house in Tamarindo, Costa Rica. Duane encouraged his children and relatives to share in these travel adventures with him, and had buckets of stories and tales to tell. He made many lifelong friends nearly the world over, and could always be counted on for a wry joke and a double drink. Family who miss him dearly include his wife Margaret; his son Daniel; daughters Lisa Miner and Linda Carlson; sons-in-law Rick Miner and Jeremy Carlson; grandsons Curt Miner, Christopher and Michael Carlson; and many, many relatives and friends who knew him as a true friend and champion. Services will be held at El Camino Memorial Chapel in Sorrento Valley Sunday November 19, 2006 at 12:00.

Curtis, Marcia M.D. - (Charleston Post & Courier) (4/27/2006)

CURTIS, Marcia Dr. Curtis of Charleston, Dean and Professor Emeritus at the Medical University of South Carolina, died April 25, 2006. Dr. Curtis' career as a Navy Nurse, Nurse Clinician, teacher and college administrator spanned 30 years. She was born in Boston, Massachusetts in 1931 to the late Ethel B. and Arthur B. Curtis, both of Quincy, Massachusetts. She leaves her sister, Alicia Booth of Laconia, NH and brother-in-law, Richard. She also will be missed by her nephew, Jonathan D. Booth, of Holliston, MA., and grand-nieces and grand-nephews, Ashlee, Michael and Matthew Booth. She was pre-deceased by her two nephews, Richard and Robert Booth. Dr. Curtis held an A. B. degree from Colby College and a Master of Nursing degree from Yale University. Her Doctor of Education Degree was from Boston University. After serving several years in the U.S. Navy Nurse Corps, Dr. Curtis taught and practiced nursing at Boston University where she was instrumental in developing a degree program for registered nurse students. She was employed by the Medical University of South Carolina in 1968 to develop the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Degree Program, which was nationally accredited in 1971. In 1979, Dr. Curtis was successful in securing federal funding for the establishment of the Master of Science in Nursing Degree Program. Dr. Curtis developed the Nurse-Midwifery Program in 1973 in cooperation with the College of Medicine. Also, during her tenure as dean, she established two satellite nursing programs for Registered Nurses to earn their B.S.N. degree. These programs were at Winthrop College in Rock Hill and Francis Marion College in Florence, S.C. Dr. Curtis served as consultant to several developing nursing education programs, both in South Carolina and out of state. She was consultant to numerous hospital nursing services and other health care institutions. She was active in numerous state and national professional organizations and was a charter member of the Statewide Master Planning Committee on Nursing Education in South Carolina. She was honored as an Emeritus member (charter) of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing in 1987. Dr. Curtis was appointed by the Secretary of Defense to the Defense Advisory Committee on Women in the Service (DACOWITS) and served 1975-1978. Dr. Curtis was an avid conservationist and active in conservation projects, both in South Carolina and in New Hampshire. Burial will be private and in the family cemetery in Quincy, MA. Curtis, Mark Luben. - (Daily Breeze) (11/16/06)

Mark L. Curtis, 51, was born in Los Angeles, CA on July 1, 1955 and went home to be with Jesus, from Palm Springs, CA on October 12, 2006, as a result of complications of pneumonia. Mark spent his elementary school years in Inglewood, CA and then attended West Torrance High School, where he played football, was part of the debate team, participated in student government and was Student Body President. After graduation from high school, Mark went on to The University of Southern California where he was a Trojan yell leader and a member of Skull & Dagger Honor Society. Between his junior and senior year at USC he attended Georgetown University on an extension program. He worked for, then Congressman Robert Dorman in his Washington, D.C. office as a congressional intern. Following graduation from USC in 1977 he attended Pepperdine Law School. After one year he reconsidered his career choices and went to work for IBM where he remained for over fifteen years. After IBM he held positions as senior sales executive with such corporations as Akamai Technologies, Haines, Cotti & Associates and Premiere Global Services. He was a member of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association and on the Board of Directors of the Pasadena Symphony, AAF Rose Bowl Aquatics Center and the Andover Association of Southern California. One of Mark's favorite things in life was to make people smile and laugh through his practical jokes and funny stories. Those that loved him most will remember his contagious sense of humor, his infectious laugh and his deep love of people. He wanted everyone to be happy! Mark leaves behind three children, Cameron and Emily, students at UCLA and Andrew, a sophomore at Loyola High School. Completely broken-hearted by his death are his parents, Les and Mary Curtis of Palm Springs, CA; his sister, Cynthia Talley (Stan); and nephews, Bobby and John Talley of Dana Point, CA. Also devastated are his aunts and uncles, Anne Cary of Darien, CT, Michael and Janice Stellino of Torrance, CA and John and Karen Tillis of Laguna Niguel, CA; and a beloved ninety-three year-old great-aunt, Helen Jamieson of Worthington, MN; as well as many loving cousins and close friends. A celebration of Mark's life will be private.

Curtis, Paul L. - (Orlando Sentinel) (5/4/2006)

CURTIS, PAUL L., Paul Lincoln Curtis went to his eternal home to be with his beloved Sally on Sunday, April 30. He passed away peacefully, surrounded by his family and close friends. Paul Curtis was well-known in Central Florida as a developer and builder of residential and commercial real estate. He successfully developed many custom-home subdivisions, including Spring Lake Forest near the Orlando Country Club, as well as Lake Sherwood Hills, Rose Hill, Winwood, Wingrove Estates, Vineland Oaks, Palm Lake and Westover Reserve. In recent years, Paul focused on developing commercial real estate. He and his family successfully developed Grand Oaks Village in southwest Orange County, creating a neighborhood retail center that serves the neighborhoods in the Dr. Phillips community. Paul was a visionary, believing it was always better to give his customers more than they expected. In the third phase of Rose Hill, he spent thousands of dollars to curve the community's entrance road around two ancient oak trees, rather than cut them down as he was entitled to do. At Grand Oaks Village, he directed architects to design structures with cement tile roofs, dormers and gables to ensure that the commercial development blended harmoniously with the surrounding residential neighborhoods. Paul also co-developed the Peachtree Building on West Colonial Drive, just west of downtown Orlando. It is believed to be the first office condominium project developed in Orlando. Born July 25, 1928 in Tampa, Paul was educated in public schools in Hillsborough and Duval counties. He attended Stetson University in DeLand and graduated from Florida State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1950. His first job out of college was with Proctor & Gamble Co. in Cincinnati. While in Ohio, he met and fell in love with Sarah "Sally" Link, whom he married on November 22, 1954. He missed Florida so much that he got a job in Orlando and moved here in 1956 with Sally and their eight-month-old daughter. Paul was a man of many accomplishments. He was a founding brother of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity at FSU and he was a founding member of the FSU debate team. He was a Toastmaster and won the organization's Best Speaker Award in 1961. He was a former member of the board of directors for the Home Builders Association of Mid-Florida and a former chair of Mid-PAC, the association's political action committee. He was a member of the Greater Orlando Association of Realtors and a member of the International Council of Shopping Centers. Paul was devoted to his children, Caryl and Clinton, who joined his family-owned real estate company. His pride and joy were his eight grandchildren: Chris, Sarah, Lizzy, Emily, Clint Jr., Will, Shawn and Colin. In addition to his children and grandchildren, Paul is survived by son-in-law Bill McAlpin, daughter-in-law Lori Curtis, sister Joan Curtis McKeithen, brother-in-law, Shands McKeithen and sister-in-law, Karen Oberdoerster. A Funeral Service will be held Friday, May 5 at 4PM at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, 1450 Citrus Oaks Avenue. The church is just off West Colonial Drive, east of the intersection of Clark Road and West Colonial. A reception will follow at the church. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that contributions Orlando Regional Healthcare Foundation, Paul L. Curtis Memorial, 3160 Southgate Commerce Blvd., Suite 50, Orlando, 32806.

Curtiss, Richard Conway (Burlington Free Press) (9/7/06)

Williamstown: Richard Conway Curtiss most beloved husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother and uncle passed on to his eternal rest on Sept. 1, 2006 in the Central Vermont Medical Center in Berlin. He was preceded in death by his parents Charles and Ruth Curtiss, and his sister, Patricia Hudson. Survivors include his wife of 62 years, Vivian of Williamstown; daughter, Linda Schaefer and her husband Ed of Williamstown; five grandchildren (David Fostervold and his wife Stacey of Bristol, Conn.; Brian Fostervold and fiancée Jane Ross of Ridgefield, Conn.; Marya Fostervold-Scott and her husband Sharrod of Raleigh, NC; Julie Kastigar and her husband James of Hermosa Beach, CA; Holly Schaefer of Payson); and five great-grandchildren (Mathew and Madison Fostervold, and Jasmine, Faith and Jalen Fostervold-Scott). He is also survived by a sister, Norma Edwards of Essex Junction; a brother, Phillip Curtiss of Royal Palm Beach, FL; and numerous nieces and nephews. Born Feb. 14, 1923, Richard lived all his life in Williamstown. Immediately following graduation from Williamstown High School in 1941, he enlisted in the U.S. Army Air Corps and flew missions over Japan, Formosa, Manchuria, Burma, Thailand, Sumatra, and Ceylon. On June 5, 1944 he flew on the historic first B29 bombing mission over Bangkok, Thailand. That was followed by the bombing of the Imperial Iron and Steel Works in Yawata, Japan on June 15, 1944. This was the first air raid over the Japanese mainland since the famous Jimmy Dolittle air strike in 1942. In recent years Richard was a member of the World War II Memorial Association. He was a very patriotic and proud to be a part of "The Greatest Generation." In Pratt, Kansas on Jan. 8 1944 Richard married Vivian Towns of Savannah, GA. They settled in Vermont following his discharge from the Army Air Corps in 1945. In 1946 Richard went to work as an inspector for the Highway Patrol. He transferred to the newly formed State Police on July 1, 1947, then rose through the ranks serving in charge of the Safety Education Division, Director of the Marine Division, Head of the Special Services Unit, and Troop Commander. He retired as Captain in 1978. From 1978 to 1988 Richard worked for the Vermont State Employees Association. He was a familiar face in the Legislative halls as he lobbied for better salaries, benefits, and working conditions for Vermont's employees. Richard held many offices in the Free mason Society, beginning in 1951 in the Summit Masonic Lodge 104 in Williamstown of which was a past Master, through the Scottish and York Rites, and culminating with his installation as Vermont's 73rd Grand Master on June 14, 1989. He was also a member of the Mont Sinai Temple 3 and Charity Chapter 5, OES, of Williamstown. The youths of Vermont were of particular concern to Richard. He was on the staff of Vermont Boys State for over 50 years and served as director for more than 20 of those years. He also was part of the Governor's Committee on Children and Youth for 14 years. Other affiliations included the Montpelier Elks, Brattleboro Post of the American Legion, the Societa 'di Mutuo Soccorso of Barre, and the World War II 40th Bomb Group Association. He was a director of the Vermont State Fair in Rutland. He was a member of the United Federated Church of Williamstown. He loved the circus and was a member of the Circus Fans Association of America and the Circus Historical Society. He knew many professional circus performers and was an amateur clown. He had an extensive circus poster collection. Richard was a familiar face through Vermont and touched many lives. He was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.. Funeral services will be held Sept. 6, in the United Federated Church in Williamstown. Burial will be in the Williamstown Village Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the organ fund of the United Federated Church. (submitted by Roger M. Curtiss, Vickie LaRae (Cody Enterprise) (June 19,2006)

Vickie LaRae Wenke, 51, died at home June 16, 2006. She was born to DuWaine and Lauriena Curtiss on Aug. 9, 1954. She was raised in Basin and graduated from high school there in 1972. She and Russ Wenke were married July 19, 1975 at Sacred Heart Church in Greybull. They continued to live in Basin until moving to Cody in 1989. They have been blessed with three children and four grandchildren. She loved being a wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, cousin and friend. She excelled at each of these and still had time to enjoy a successful career, first as a legal secretary and later as a lands record analyst for Iron Creek Energy. Many who attended St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Cody will remember the beautiful organ and piano music she provided. She felt her playing and involvement in the choir and youth choir was a small enjoyable way for her to give back to her church. Her faith and the faith she helped everyone close to her find made it possible for her and all who loved her to find great joy, even when the struggles with cancer seemed too much to bear. She is survived by her husband, mother of Basin, daughter Katie (Travis) Peterson of Williston, ND, daughter Shanna (Cassidy) Westbrook of Gillette, son Jeff Wenke of Cody, grand children Torian, Payton, Hailey and Dalyn, brother Roger Curtiss of Marietta, GA, sister Connie (Mike) Renig of Helena, MT, sister Sheri (Phil) Hartman of Basin, mother-in-law Marie Zaring of Cody, brother-in-law Bill (Sue) Wenke of Cody, several nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and many wonderful friends. She was preceded in death by her father, grandparents, and numerous aunts and uncles. Burial will be at Riverside Cemetery. (submitted by Barbara Weaver, Cody, WY)

Curtis, William Brian - (Salt Lake Tribune) (11/17/06)

William Brian Curtis 1942 ~ 2006 William Brian Curtis died Nov. 11, 2006 of complications of COPD. He was born March 27, 1942 to William and Jimmie Curtis in Amarillo, Texas. People called him William, Will, Bill, Brian, Dad, and Papa. He was brilliant, religious, happy, kind, generous, non-judgmental, witty, eccentric, sarcastic, and he had a marvelous sense of humor. He enjoyed computer games, science fiction movies, and playing Halo on his Xbox. He was a large man who often sat on his porch without his shirt on, basking in the sun and smoking cigarettes at 2333 E. 2100 S., in Salt Lake City. He lived by his own rules and he laughed when a couple of teenage girls drove by and yelled at him out the window of their car, "Put a shirt on!" He often dressed like a transient because he said that he was a "mood dresser." He was the definition of cool. William loved Cokes, sweet rolls, and cheeseburgers. He conveniently lived right across the street from McDonald's and was probably their best customer. He is survived by Whitey, his cat, whom he cherished; his five children, Brian, Rosanne, Rudy, and Richard, of San Diego; his youngest daughter, Bernadette, with whom he was closest during the last nine years of his life; Steve, Bernadette's husband; his loving granddaughter, Alex; his ex-son-in-law, Juan, whom he adored; his step son Michael and family, of San Diego; and many grandchildren. He also leaves behind his many friends and neighbors at Foothill Terrace Apartments, which include his dear friends, Julie and Lenny. He is preceded in death by his parents and his loving wife, Joyce, whom he missed so dearly. Special thanks to Promise Healthcare at Salt Lake Regional Hospital for their outstanding care and kindness and to the University of Utah Hospital's MICU. A memorial service will be held in William's honor at a later time. William's ashes will be combined with Joyce's and they will be buried together in Arizona.

Cannon, Joan Cannon Curtis - (Deseret News) & (Salt Lake Tribune) 11/4 & 5/06

Joan Cannon Curtis 1951 ~ 2006 Joan Cannon Curtis was born August 7, 1951 to Afton R. and George N. Cannon, the only daughter in a family of boys. Whether at East High, the U of U, or Stanford, Joan enjoyed the stimulation of school and the company of loyal friends. She particularly treasured her acquaintance with Marv Curtis, her high school cheerleading partner. After his LDS mission and her world travels, they reconnected and were married in the Salt Lake Temple on May 24, 1974. Their paramount adventure has ever been their six children, though births and babies didn't slow them down; Joan and Marv just brought the kids along, raising them across the deserts and canyons of Southern Utah and herding them down ski slopes. Joan truly delighted in her family, and they delighted in her. She was a dutiful shepherd, always desiring to lead her children and grandchildren to beautiful pastures and vistas, both earthly and heavenly. Her four year war with ovarian cancer only strengthened her spirit and proved her indomitable will and love for life. Her influence has been widely felt and she will be keenly missed—in her home, in her church service, in her friendships, and in her garden. Looking back on her life is to stand at the foot of a mountain and see a pair of tracks carved with grace, strength and beauty through fresh powder. What a grand run! Joan passed away peacefully in her home on Nov. 2, 2006. She was preceded in death by son, Peter Cannon Curtis. Survived by husband, Marvin R. Curtis, Jr.; children, M. Benjamin Curtis, James C. and Marie Jackson, Benjamin and Jane Durham, Catherine Curtis, and David Curtis; grandchildren, Laine and Romney Jackson; father, George N. Cannon; mother and step-father, William and Afton R. Boyd; brothers, George Cannon, Eric and Sheila Cannon, and Bruce Cannon. Funeral services will be held on Monday, November 6, 2006 at 12 Noon at the Emigration 6th Ward, 589 East 18th Ave. A viewing will be held on Sunday from 6 to 8 p.m. at Larkin Mortuary, 260 East South Temple, and on Monday from 10:45 to 11:45 a.m. at the church. Crandall, Renee Crandall Curtis - (Daily Herald) (11/5/06)

April 15, 1920, the earth was blessed with the miracle of Renee Crandall Curtis, born to George and Ella Larson Crandall. She had two brothers: Carl and Kent Crandall, both deceased. Renee went to Springville High School where she met her sweetheart Carl Curtis. They were married on May 3, 1939 and sealed for time and all eternity in the Manti LDS Temple on May 27, 1954. The happiness and love they enjoyed remained a constant through their marriage that lasted 60 years. Their pride and joy was their children: Terry Curtis of American Fork; Patricia Curtis Barker of Springville; and George Curtis of Springville. They built their home in Springville and have enjoyed tending to their beautiful yard, many flower beds, garden, and fruit trees. This was their "Paradise" as they called it. They enjoyed gathering their family together for backyard dinners under the beautiful walnut trees. Renee loved to sew clothing for her daughter, she loved to be outside, she was a wonderful gardener, she loved nature, taking long drives and looking at the beauty around her. She was a perfectionist at everything she did. She had a keen mind and a real knack of ingenuity to make things last. She was a hard worker. She loved to travel. She spent a lot of time seeing new places: many trips walking the beaches in California, Canada and Victoria; Eastern states: Massachusetts, Boston, New England and Maine. She went on a show boat to see the whales in the North Atlantic Ocean, and she has seen the beautiful light houses all along the Atlantic. Hawaii, Colorado, Kentucky and Tennessee were among some of her more recent favorite places she visited. She had such an amazing way of serving and caring for her husband, children, family and all around her. Her family will forever be grateful for the wonderful mother and grandmother that she was. She was an incredible example of the spirit of giving; she showed such selfless love, service and devotion to her friends, family, children and grandchildren. She enjoyed being a homemaker. Her home was filled with peace and love. She has had the opportunity to serve in the church as a primary teacher, MIA president, Relief Society President, visiting teacher, and many other ways within the church through her constant volunteering to help in any capacity that she could. She served in many community duties, which included the Lady Lions club president, Home Culture club, Para Pasu, and she was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary. Her legacy of husband, kids, grandkids, friendships, service, faith, and love for the gospel; gardening, flowers, clouds, chewing gum, ice cream, chocolate, shopping, jackets, going out with her daughter, spending time with her family, playing with her grandchildren and mountains of love and service to everyone will remain with us always. She is survived by her beloved sons and daughter and their spouses; 11 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, November 7, 2006 at 11 a.m. in the LDS Chapel at 840 South 400 East, Springville. Family and friends may call Monday evening from 6-8 p.m. in the Wheeler mortuary, 211 East 200 South, Springville; and from 10-10:45 a.m. prior to the services at the church. Interment will be held Tuesday, November 7, 2006 in the Evergreen Cemetery, 1997 South 400 East.

Crawford, Faye Carol Curtis - (Salt Lake Tribune) & (Deseret News) (8/30/06)

Faye C. Curtis 1920 ~ 2006 RICHFIELD, UTAH- Our precious wife, mother, grandmother, sister and friend, Faye Carol Crawford Curtis, was born July 28, 1920 in Ferron, Utah. She left this world peacefully to return home on August 26, 2006. She married Earl Garr Curtis, November 6, 1946 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Faye dedicated each day of her life to the well being of others and the world in which she lived. For 31 years, she taught the students of Richfield the fine art of Home Economics as well as English. Because of her love for homemaking, she organized the Future Homemakers of America (FHA) Chapter at Richfield High School. After retiring, Faye volunteered her time at Pahvant Elementary helping young students learn to read. She was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and served in various callings including Primary Teacher, Young Women Teacher, Relief Society Teacher and counselor in the Sevier Stake Girl's Program. Faye also served as the President of the Richfield Jayceettes and was instrumental in promoting the 4-H Program in Richfield. She enjoyed genealogy, gardening, sewing, cooking, writing personal family histories and spending time with her grandchildren. Faye was blessed with a keen mind which brought her many accomplishments including graduation from Utah State University with Pi Kappa Phi honors. However, if you were to ask Faye, her family made her the happiest. She is survived by her husband, Garr, of Richfield; children: David and Dawn Curtis of Salt Lake City; Karen and Tim Sperry of Albuquerque, NM; Ruth and Jim Dallas of Sandy; Camille and Jay Ogden of Richfield; 13 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; brothers and sister: Donald and Jean Crawford of Salt Lake City; Paul and JoeAnn Crawford of Ferron; Evanel and Larry Rexroad of Boise, ID. Doty, Florence (Doty) Curtis - (Press Democrat) (9/20/2006)

CURTIS, Florence (Doty) Passed away at home September 11, 2006 at age 84, after so gracefully enduring debilitating illness for over 6 years. During her lifetime, she devoted her quiet strength and generous spirit to her family, always ready to help whoever was in need. Being very interested in family history; she and her cousin, Doris Mann, compiled volumes of family records. She was from a pioneering family, on her father's side, descended from Edward Doty on the Mayflower. Her grandparents traveled the Oregon Trail together by covered wagon, later married, and eventually moved down to California. They bought property on Grandview Rd. in Sebastopol in 1899; and soon became a farming family living all across the top of "Doty Hill", as it was called. Florence's father, Walter Doty, met her mother, Ethel, in England during World War I. After the war, he borrowed money to return and marry her, and bring her to Grandview Rd. Luther Burbank gave Florence, and each of her brothers and sisters, a tree upon their birth, which was planted near their home. Florence lived the majority of her life in Sonoma County where she enjoyed getting together with cousins and friends for her monthly "Club" (the daughters of her mother's group, made up of relatives and neighbors). She also enjoyed gardening, sewing, traveling, and devoting time to her family. She was a member of the Mayflower Society and the Community Church in Sebastopol. She is survived by her devoted husband of 64 years, Jack Curtis; son Jim Curtis; daughter Jeanne Riedel; grandchildren: Sophie Curtis, Justin Riedel, David Riedel, and Jared Riedel; and sisters: Muriel Walton and Lois Linsenbigler, along with many nieces and nephews. She also leaves behind first cousins Tessie Volkerts, Doris Mann, and Margie Hurst, among many other relatives and family friends in the Sebastopol area and many dear relatives in England. She was preceded in death by her brothers, Art Doty and Jack Doty and cousin Sara Gerboth. Family and friends are invited to attend a Memorial Service on Sunday, September 24, 2006 at 2 p.m. at the Community Church, 1000 Hwy. 116 North, Sebastopol. If desired, memorial contributions may be made to Memorial Hospice, the Parkinson's Disease Foundation or the American Cancer Society.

Downey, Francis E. (TheTimes Union, Albany, NY) (5/5/2006)

ALBANY -- Francis E. Downey, of Albany, age 98 years, died at St. Peter's Hospital on May 3, 2006. Born in Carthage, N.Y. and raised in Syracuse, he had been a resident of the Albany area for more than 75 years. He was a graduate of Christian Brothers Academy in Syracuse and attended Syracuse University. A graphics artist and illustrator, his employment by Warner Brothers began in the 1930s and continued for 20 years. He worked in the art department, creating displays for 30 theaters in the Northeast. After government antitrust action disbanded the movie industry, he was associated with Margold Silk Screen Design for about 20 years. He was a veteran of World War II, having served from 1942 to 1945 with the 15th Signal Corps Company B at the U.S. Army Signal Corps School in Fort Monmouth, N.J. He was an instructor in the principles of electricity, teletype maintenance, teaching methods and map reading. He had a lifelong interest in electronics communication, having built a crystal set when he was 12 so that he could obtain radio signals from far-off places. As a teenager in Syracuse, he operated a ham radio. Later, he put together his first radio, creating the box out of copper. He put together a Heathkit for a very small black-and-white television set when they were just coming onto the market and, much later, assembled a very large color TV set. He was enthusiastic about computers and became expert in utilizing them. He also had a keen interest in photography and had his own darkroom and color enlarger as well as specialized equipment for computer photographic printing. He was a former member of the board of directors of the Parsons School in Albany and, for many years, a patron of the Williamstown Theatre. He was also a member of the American Legion. He was the son of Sidney E. Downey and Frances Walsh Downey of Carthage. He is survived by his second wife, Winifred Widmer Downey, to whom he was married in 1971, and three children from his first marriage to Margaret Merges, Francis A. Downey of Delmar and two daughters, Susan Downey of Ravena and Margaret Olekoski of Latham. A sister, Helen Nolan, predeceased him. He is also survived by eight grandchildren, three step-grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. Interment in Our Lady Help of Christians Church, Glenmont, N.Y.

Gibson, Helen M. Curtis - (San Luis Obispo Tribune) (11/21/06)

Helen M. Curtis, 87, passed away Wednesday, Nov. 15, 2006. A family graveside service was held at the Arroyo Grande Cemetery. Helen was born on June 19, 1919, in Yellville, Ark., to John A. and Beulah M. (Turner) Gibson. As a small child she lived in Ada, Okla., coming to Los Angeles, Calif. as a young girl, where she grew up and received her education. As a young woman, Helen met and married the love of her life, Edward L. Curtis, her husband of 42 years. They worked hand-in-hand to build all of the homes they ever lived in. She worked in the fresh milk and dairy industry as an ice cream packer for Meadow Gold in Pasadena, Calif., and as an accountant for Carnation Co in Los Angeles, Calif. She retired and came to Arroyo Grande in 1972, where she enjoyed a small family farm on the Arroyo Grande Mesa on what is now called Curtis Place. She grew the best flowers, fruit and vegetables and enjoyed sharing them with family and friends. She lived an artistic life and enjoyed oil painting, china painting, ceramics, and playing the organ. Known for her gracious ways, friendly smile and unconditional love, her motto was, "Your smile is your passport!". Helen was a lifelong member of the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses. She was a member of the Grover Heights congregation. Helen was a firm believer in the promise of the resurrection. Helen was preceded in death by her parents, husband and her brother Herbert Gibson. She is survived by her son Ronald M. Curtis and his wife Sharon of Tacoma, Wash; her son Lyle S. Curtis of Prescott Valley, Ariz; her daughter Carol Lair and her companion Gene Santos of Grover Beach; grandchildren, Ed Curtis and wife Melissa, Christopher Curtis and wife Amy of Puyallup, Wash., Michael Bueno and wife Maria of Arroyo Grande and Jennifer Brummerloh of Rhode Island; great-grandchildren, John, Jesse, Samantha, Dylan, Kendall, Gabriel, Devon and Kayla.

Greenlaw, Rubie O. Curtis - (Morning Sentinel) (4/21/2006)

MOSCOW -- Rubie O. Curtis, 81, passed away Wednesday, April 19, 2006, at Westgate Manor in Bangor, where she had lived since 2002. She was the loving mother of Steve P. Curtis, and for 40 years until his death in 1983, the devoted wife of Philip H. Curtis. Rubie was born Jan. 28, 1925, in Pleasant Ridge, daughter of Harry and Stella (Andrews) Greenlaw. She was one of 14 children. Rubie grew up in Pleasant Ridge, Embden and Solon. After graduating as valedictorian of Solon High School, she received a diploma from Bangor Maine School of Commerce, now Husson. She held jobs at several area businesses including Quimby Veneer Mill, Steve Shaw Insurance Agency and S.D. Warren Co. She was tax collector in Moscow for many years. She was a longtime active member of First Congregational Church in Bingham, serving as church treasurer, attending adult Sunday school class and participating in Growth Group and Lunch With the Lord Bible studies, as well as Church Circle. Rubie had a strong background in bookkeeping and other office procedures, so she became interested in personal computers almost as soon as they came out. She started out when everything had to be done in DOS and she was quite proficient at using DOS commands. She was very good at word processing, spreadsheets, card programs and accounting programs. She was a proficient seamstress, having made many of her own clothes as well as wedding dresses for her daughter-in-law and her granddaughter. Rubie had a great love for cards. She played many different games, including bridge with several groups, as well as pinochle with her sisters. She enjoyed Senior Walking in the winter and neighborhood treks in the summer. Her grandchildren were the focus of her life for many years. Nanny, as she was known to the kids, took them on "explores," teaching them about God, nature, and family history along the way. She would have them at her house for weeks at a time when they were young, and would travel all over the state to visit them as they grew older. Rubie was predeceased by sisters Helena, Phyllis, Thelma and Margret, and brother Harry. She leaves a son, Steve Curtis with his wife, Jayne, of Moscow. Her two grandchildren are Tiffany (Curtis) Rivers with her husband, John, of Etna and Skip Curtis with his wife, Cindi, of Brewer. Surviving siblings are Harriet French of Solon, Lois Duplisea of Solon, Clara Provost of Freeport, Llewellyn Greenlaw of Madison, Shirley Woods of Skowhegan, Glennys Bottoms of Baker City, Ore., Ray Greenlaw of Heppner, Ore., and Carroll Greenlaw of Melbourne, Fla. Rubie also leaves six great-grandchildren as well as numerous nieces and nephews. The family would like to thank Westgate Manor, an Alzheimer's care home in Bangor, for the loving care shown to Rubie during her residency there. Friends and family are invited to call from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, May 5, at Giberson Funeral Home, 18 River St., Bingham. A funeral service will be held at 11:30 a.m. Saturday, May 6, at the First Congregational Church on Meadow Street in Bingham with the Rev. Douglas W. Drown officiating. Interment will be in the Union Cemetery, Moscow. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the First Congregational Church, P.O. Box 114, Bingham, ME 04920.

Karas, Helen Curtis - (The Arizona Republic) (6/2/2006)

Helen Curtis, 78, passed away peacefully on May 28, 2006. She was born July 11, 1927 in Indiana to Christ and Mary Karas, both from Greece. She met Frederick Curtis after he spotted her beautiful blue eyes peeking over the cash register at the Skyline Restaurant in Lubbock, Texas. She moved to Phoenix in 1951 to be near her family and married Fred soon after. They had three boys who she raised much of the year as work took Fred away for long, seasonal periods. Though petite, Helen had a big heart and was full of energy and strength. She made friends quickly and could light up a room with her smile, fun stories and genuine warmth. She worked a variety of jobs, loved to help others and generously volunteered her time to be with those in need. She is survived by her three sons: Ric (Vicki), Dale (Donna), and Chris, five grandchildren, J (Sheila), Angel, Brad (Jackie), Reed and Elizabeth and two great-grandchildren, Alana and Monet, her five sisters, Freida, Diane, Georgia, Pauline, Christine, one brother, Thomas and many wonderful nieces and nephews. She joins her husband, her mother and one granddaughter in heaven. She was dearly loved by all who knew her and will be greatly missed. A Memorial Service will take place Saturday June 3, 2006 10:30am at Glendale Light and Life Church, 6331 W Lamar Rd., Glendale. Contributions are invited to the Hospice of the Valley or to your favorite charity.

Laing, Phyllis Carleton Curtis (Haverhill MA Gazette) (2006, date not given)

Haverhill Phyllis C. Curtis 88, widow of the late Lowell W. Curtis and daughter of the late George T. and Lois (Carleton) Laing of Bradford, died Thursday morning, Dec. 14, 2006 at the Merrimack Valley Hospital after a long confinement after breaking her hip. She lived for the past 10 years at Phoenix Apartments, Phoenix Row in Haverhill. She was born in the original Hale Hospital on Buttonwoods Avenue on Feb. 6, 1918 and grew up on her father's family homestead at 39 South Pleasant St. in the Bradford District. She attended Cogswell and Greenleaf schools and Haverhill High School, graduating with the class of 1936. That summer she worked at the resort summer hotel Asquam House on Squam Lake in New Hampshire, where she met Lowell W. Curtis of Rockland, Mass. They were married on March 13, 1937 in the old North Parish Church of Haverhill and Plaistow, N.H. Lowell had been working in the great hotels for many years, in the south during the winter and in the north during the summer. She went with him to Pinehurst, N.C., Michigan and finally New York, where they stayed until 1942, when they returned to her family home in Bradford. There they raised their four children. She was very active in both the school PTA's and cub scouting, Rainbow and DeMolay when her children were involved in those activities. When the youngest child was in middle school, she went to work at the Mitchell & Co. Department Store on Merrimack Street, working in the boy's department until the late 1960's, at which time she went to work in the accounting department of the Faulkner Hospital in Jamaica Plain, Mass. In 1971, she and her husband left Haverhill and returned to his family homestead at 163 Hingham St., Rockland, Mass., where they remained until after his death in 1977. In the later 1980's, she returned to Haverhill and stayed with her youngest son's family at the Whittier Homestead, where they were caretakers and curators. When they moved, Phyllis stayed on and for five years gave tours. In the mid-1990's, in her mid-70's, she completely retired and moved to the Phoenix House. She was a Past Worthy Matron of the Fidelity Chapter # 90, Order of the Eastern Star; and a member of the Haverhill Historical Society, Friends of the Haverhill Public Library, the Whittier Club of Haverhill, and the national Curtis's Family Society; also, a past member of the People's Methodist Church and the First Church of Christ, both of Bradford and the First Parish Church, Unitarian, of Norwell. She was an avid reader, aware of current events, and greatly enjoyed history and family history. She was a descendant of many of the early families who settled in Haverhill and Bradford. She also loved music, particularly New Orleans-style jazz, and travel, crossing the country alone by train many times, as well as making a few trips to Europe. She is survived by her four children, Karen C. Kimball of Weymouth, Mass., Lowell W. Curtis and his wife Barbara of Holden, Mass., Lawrence L. Curtis and his wife Carol of Newfields, N.H., and Howard W. Curtis* of West Tisbury, Mass. She also leaves 11 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; and by her two brothers, Theodore H. Laing of Laconia, N.H. and Largo, Fla., and Donald K. Laing of West Newbury, Mass. She was predeceased by one grandson. ARRANGEMENTS: Relatives and friends are invited to the funeral Monday at noon at Dole, Childs & Shaw Funeral Home, 148 Main St., Haverhill. Private burial, next to her late husband, will follow at Maplewood Cemetery in Rockland, Mass. Calling hours will precede the funeral from 10 a.m. to noon. Memorial contributions may be made to the Whittier Homestead, 305 Whittier Rd., Haverhill, MA 01830. (* Mother of Howard W. Curtis, President of the Curtis Family Society) (sent by Jean E. (Curtis) Blovits, Treasurer of The Curtis Family Society)

Leto, Winifred "Eloise" Curtis - (TBO.com) (10/5/06)

CURTIS, Winifred "Eloise," 50, lifelong resident of Tampa, and a part-time resident of Lake Rosalie, passed away Wednesday, October 4, 2006. She was preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Christine Leto, and sister, Elaine Murray. She was a precious, loving mom and wife to Jeff, her husband of 35 years, her son, Jeffrey S. Curtis Jr., and daughter, Tammy Lynn Curtis. Other survivors include brother, Frank P. Leto; sisters, Joann Hack and Shirley Freeman; countless brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews and cousins. One of her greatest loves was floating and fishing on the lake in her pontoon boat, oftentimes accompanied by her puppies, Dixie and Presley. She had a voice of an angel from above that blessed us all many times over, a sound we'll never forget. We know she's singing alongside Patsy now. She was a pillar in the family, the rock that kept us all together. She will be forever missed. We know you are looking down from heaven with Pearl and Bill, and smiling on us all. Your legacy will go on forever. Your loving kindness and devotion to us all will be missed. When we hear the train whistle blow we'll be thinking of No. 9. A funeral service will take place at noon Saturday, October 7, 2006, at Hillsborough United Methodist Church.

Olsson, Doreen Curtis - (Morning Sentinel) (4/10/2006)

NEWPORT -- Doreen (Olsson) Curtis, 67, died April 7, 2006, at a Pittsfield hospital following a long illness. She was born in Woodland in Washington County, on Nov. 1, 1938, the daughter of Harold and Dorothy (Scott) Olsson. She was educated in Woodland schools. Doreen had been employed at Forrest Yarns in Newport for a few years and then she worked at Dexter Shoe Co. in Newport until her retirement because of ill health. She enjoyed long rides in the countryside and attending the state fairs. She was an avid bingo player always looking forward to her bingo nights. Doreen is survived by her loving companion of 19 years, Wayne F. Steward of Newport; one daughter, Rita L. Curtis of Newport; three sons, George W. Curtis Jr. of Newport, Fred and his wife, Denise Curtis, of Newport, Kenneth and his wife, Brenna Curtis, of Plymouth; one sister, Grace M. Dodge of Detroit; nine grandchildren, George III, Brandon, Brittany, Bridget, Amber, Ryan, Nick, Craig and Danielle. She was predeceased by her parents and an infant daughter Barbara Marie. Friends may call 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 11, at Brown Funeral Home and Cremation Services 34 High St., Newport. Private graveside services will be conducted later in the spring at the Detroit Village Cemetery.

Packard, Thelma Daisey Curtis - (Morning Sentinel) (5/21/2006)

BATH -- Thelma Daisey Curtis, 91, of Bath, formerly of Wilton, died late Thursday evening, May 18, 2006, at the Plant Memorial Home in Bath. She previously had resided in her own home in Skowhegan until February of this year when she moved to be nearer her son. She was born Aug. 24, 1914, in Wilton, where she spent her childhood and graduated from Wilton Academy. In 1933, she married Mabra Packard and they divorced in 1956. In 1965, she married Harold Curtis of Skowhegan. He died in 1978. Thelma enjoyed maintaining her lovely lawns, gardens and amazing raspberry patch in Skowhegan, and took great pride in mowing her own lawns through 2005. She also enjoyed playing cards, knitting, and the company of her lap kitty, "Kit." She is survived by three children, son Phillip Packard and his wife, Nancy (Cates), of Arrowsic Island, son James Packard and his wife, Bernice (Gordon), of Dixfield and daughter Kathy (Curtis) Chagnon and her husband, Arthur, of Maryland; 10 grandchildren; and 18 great grandchildren. She was predeceased by a son, Lewis Packard, in 2003. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the Wiles Remembrance Center, 136 High St., Wilton. Relatives and friends are invited to call Monday 6-8 p.m. Interment will be at Lakeview Cemetery, Wilton.

Thelma H. (Daisey) (Packard) Curtis was the 2nd wife of Harold J. Curtis (b. 7 May 1920, d. Nov 1978). Harold J. Curtis was a son of Alfred B. Curtis, b. 22 May 1888. In the 1900 census, Alfred is listed as the stepson of Richard L. Curtis who m. 2nd Hattie M. (___?) c. 1891. In the 1910 census, Alfred is "working out" and Hattie is the head of household with Alfred listed as her "son". The 1910 census provides that Richard L. was married twice and Hattie once. According to the 1910 census, Hattie had six children, all living at the time of that census and Alfred certainly could be one of these children (only four of her children have been identified, not including Alfred). It is not known at this time when Richard L.'s 1st wife ("Mrs. Eliza Johnson") died, but she is about age 42 in the 1880 census and thus would be about age 50 at Alfred's birth – not impossible but not likely. The question, then, is Alfred a genetic son of Richard by Hattie or only related by Richard's marriage to Alfred's mother? (If Alfred is not Richard's son, what is the source of Alfred's Curtis surname? Adoption?) If Alfred is a genetic son of Richard, then the line follows and Thelma was a wife of the 9th generation. Plymouth: Francis(1), Benjamin(2), Joshua(3), Benjamin(4), James(5), Levi(6), Richard L.(7), Alfred B.(8), Harold J.(9). [AEH July 2006]

Powell, Louise Marie Curtis - (Billings Gazette) (11/7/06)

Louise Marie Curtis passed away Nov. 6, 2006, at home, after a long and difficult struggle with illness. Born Nov. 26, 1925, in Detroit, she was the only child of Richard and Martha Powell. From an early age she displayed a fierce determination and a passion for learning. Graduating valedictorian of her class at Plymouth High School, she was aptly described in her yearbook as having a "mind that seeks." She received her master's degree in geology from the University of Michigan and after working in the southwest for a short time, she accepted a teaching position in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., at Vassar College. On Dec. 29, 1950, she married Alan Curtis and moved to Montana, where she spent the remainder of her life. She returned to school to earn a degree in mathematics and taught in the Billings school district for 16 years. Throughout her life, she remained an independent thinker, a lover of books and an ardent traveler. She was preceded in death by her parents. She leaves behind her devoted husband, Alan; twin sons, Michael of Grand Junction, Colo., and Mark of Helena; daughter, Amy and husband Roger Hawkins; and granddaughters, Emily and Martha. As per her wishes, a private family gathering will take place at a later date. Dahl Funeral Home is in charge of cremation. Memorials may be sent to Central Asia Institute, PO Box 7209, Bozeman, MT 59771, an organization deeply committed to the education of girls.

Rosander, Maj Rosander Curtis - (Toledo Blade) (11/4/06)

CURTIS Maj Rosander Maj Rosander Curtis, of Toledo, Ohio, passed away peacefully November 1, 2006, at Hospice of Northwest Ohio. She was born December 14, 1945, to Torsten and Maja Rosander in Fagerhult, Sweden. Maj grew up on the family farm in Fagerhult and attended high school in Kalmar, Sweden. She obtained her baccalaureate degree from the University of Lund and received a master's degree at Librarian School in Stockholm. While studying in Stockholm in 1970 she met Larry Curtis of Toledo, Ohio and the two were subsequently married. Since then Maj and Larry have found ways to effectively divide their time between Toledo and Sweden. In Sweden Maj worked in biblio-therapy in a hospital library in Linkoping, in a public library in Kalmar, and as cataloguer of Radio and Television Programs at the Swedish Radio and Television network in Stockholm. In her early life, Maj was surrounded by her grandmother's hand woven sheets and towels, her mother's hand woven rugs, and her aunt's hand woven curtains and upholstery. These early exposures laid the foundation for the direction of Maj's life. When she moved to Toledo they guided her and allowed her to find a sense of continuity through carrying on this tradition. Albeit, in a new setting with needed adaptations. The structured aspects of the loom provided her with direction and order. The direction and order to the threads used for the warp, presented unlimited choices of technique, fiber, and color. She became a certified master gardener, once again allowing her to express her creativity in choices of design, plant life, color, and texture. In addition to beautiful gardens at home, she took responsibility for the herb and raised bed gardens at Toledo Botanical Gardens, and the Blair garden also at TBG. Her artistry and influence has left a living legacy as seen in gardens throughout Northwest Ohio. Maj shared her vast knowledge and skills with the community in classes, demonstrations, and photography. Her work has been widely displayed in galleries in Ohio and Michigan. Closest to the deceased are her husband, Larry; mother, Maja; sister, Kicki (Ola), nephew, Arvid; niece, Hilda; brother-in-law, Ulf and countless friends. She was preceded in death by her father, Torsten Rosander and brother, Reine Rosander. A memorial service will be held at a later date at Corpus Christi University Parish. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Hospice of Northwest Ohio or a charity of your choice.

Smith, Prentis Percival (Daily Press, Newport News, VA) (8/5/06)

Family's Legacy is significant piece of area history._(excerpt)

Prentis Percival Smith of Newport News, born May 17, 1906, is placid about being a centenarian. A big birthday buffet brought about 150 celebrants to Endview Plantation, ancestral home of the Curtis and Harwood families. Among Smith's memories are childhood visits at Endview with his grandmother, Maria Whittaker Curtis, widow of Humphrey Harwood Curtis, who traded his farm, Land's End on Mulberry Island, for Endview. The history of expansion of the 1607 Jamestown settlement along the Warwick and James rivers is interwoven with that of the Harwood and Curtis families. Thomas Harwood, named in 1624 among survivors of the 1622 Indian massacre, was listed at Neck of Land in 1625. He had large land holdings including Mulberry Island, Blunt Point at Neck of Land on James Island, and huge tracts now comprising Newport News reservoir. Humphrey Harwood received 2,070 acres in Warwick County from his father, Thom Harwood. Thomas's grandson, another Humphrey inherited this land. The Humphrey name was carried in the next generations until 1769 when William Harwood built Endview. About 1858, Humphrey Harwood Curtis traded Land's End for Endview. Intermarriages of old Virginia families make kinship intricate. Daniel Prentis Curtis, who died in 1881, married William Harwood's granddaughter, Elizabeth Harwood, born at Endview. Their son, Dr. Humphrey Harwood Curtis (Sept. 8, 1832 – Oct. 28, 1881), married Maria Whittaker. Their daughter, Maria Eliza Curtis, born 1881, married Benjamin Percival Smith, the father of Prentis Percival Smith. (submitted by Donald D. Curtis, 3041 Ridge Dr, Toano, VA 23168)

Svejnock, Antonie Ann Curtis - (News Tribune (Tacoma)) (10/8/06 & 10/9/06)

ANTONIE ANN CURTIS 14 JAN 1922 - 6 OCT 2006 84 years 8 months 23 days Ann died peacefully in her sleep at home with the courage, grace and faith which sustained her through years of dementia and related health challenges. She was born to Anton and Barbara Svejnock in Edgewood, WA., graduated Sumner High School class of 1940, married Glen Ray Curtis on 22 June 1940, and was a lifelong Edgewood resident. Ann worked for the Army and Navy during WWII, and worked locally for 25 years as a bookkeeper. Most proud to be the mother of 3, her busy mom years included: Edgemont Preschool and PTA service, and receipt of the Golden Acorn award; Girl Scouts and Job's Daughters Bethel #56 Auburn, WA; and the Toastmistress group. Ann loved cooking and welcoming friends and family to her home, and was a talented seamstress. As president of the Rake & Hoe Garden Club, she shared her lifelong interest in gardening, and her great love of roses. Ann and Glen loved to dance and cherished many years of fun and wonderful friendships shared at square, round and ballroom dancing clubs: Boots & Bonnets, Buttons & Bows, Hix-n-Chix, Interlaaken Dance Club, Merry-Go-Rounders, Ruehle's Rndr's & Ruehle's Unruehles, Squarenaders, and Starliters. They enjoyed travel both with and to friends and family, and loved their Hawaii trips. After Glen's death, Ann renewed her faith and purpose when she was baptized on 8 Nov 1992 and joined Mt. View Lutheran Church. There both old neighbors and newfound friends, and the projects of Mary Circle and the Quilters group, enriched her days. Ann passed to be with Glen, her beloved husband of 49years 11 months and 20 days. She was preceded in death by her parents; her sister Rosie Hueneka; relatives Chester Curtis, Robert Hueneka, Katon Serafine, Jr., Mildred Oliver, and R. Gary Hueneka. A graveside service will be held on Thursday 1 p.m. at Woodbine Cemetery followed by a memorial service at 2 p.m. at Mt. View Lutheran Church, Edgewood. Ann leaves children Daniel (Paula) Curtis, Mark Curtis, & Sandra (George) Courtney; grandsons Lynn (Kellie) Colkitt & Bryan Merrill; great-grandsons Bradley & Ryan Colkitt; sister-in-law Patsy Serafine; 7 nieces & nephews, 14 great-nieces and nephews, and 5 great-great nieces and nephews. Deepest gratitude to Pastor Dean Berg, Aggie Purvis, steadfast friends, caregivers and Good Samaritan Hospice staff, and her devoted caregivers Cindy Curry and Carol Wyke. Remembrances to Mt. View Lutheran Church Mary Circle or Washington Children's Home Society.

Von Goehen, Christine Windisch Von Goeben Curtis - (GreenwichTime) (02/17/2006)

CHRISTINE WINDISCH von GOEBEN CURTIS - grand daughter of the late Frederick and Hedda von Goeben Behr New York City died at the age of 77, At the River Glen Rehabilitation Center in Southbury, CT on February 11. She is survived by her husband John Robert Curtis, Jr, three sons, Carl Gavin, Allen Richard and Robert Frederick, and one sister, Hedda Windisch von Goeben. Funeral services will be held in the Roxbury, Connecticut Congregational Church on Friday, February 17 at 10:30 a.m. Please, no flowers. If you wish to leave a token in remembrance to her, perhaps you might wish to make a donation in her name to one of your favorite charities or to the Christine Curtis Memorial Scholarship Fund administered by the Connecticut Community Foundation, 43 Field Street, Waterbury, CT 06702. Born in New York City, Christine spent her formative years in Belle Haven, Greenwich. She graduated from the Greenwich and Abbott Academies and Smith College. She and her husband met in Vienna, Austria while both were working there for the Central Intelligence Agency during the Allied occupation of that city after the end of WW2. They were married in Washington, CT in April of 1954 and just missed celebrating their 52nd wedding anniversary this year. Christine will be remembered for her countless good works to aid humanity. In so doing, she followed in the footsteps of her Grandfather Behr, founder of the Behr-Manning Corporation of NYC (now part of Norton Abrasives). Through philanthropy and a willingness to get her hands dirty in projects in various countries to assist the needy, she became known far and wide as a true soldier of charity. She and her husband traveled broadly both with the U.S. Foreign Service and privately. They lived in Spain for twenty years before returning to Connecticut in 1989 to reside in Heritage Village. Immediately she involved in numerous important chores in that large community including the presidency of the Volunteer Ambulance Association for six years.
